For Immediate Release

Zwillinger Wulkan Welcomes Javier Torres as Partner

Phoenix, Arizona

Zwillinger Wulkan LLP is proud to announce that Javier Torres has joined the firm as a Partner. Javier brings a wealth of litigation experience, having most recently served as an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Arizona, where he represented the United States in complex civil matters, including employment discrimination, Federal Tort Claims Act cases, immigration litigation, and tribal matters.

Prior to his government service, Javier spent nearly a decade at Stinson LLP, where he built a distinguished practice in commercial litigation, employment law, and class action defense. His experience includes successfully representing businesses in high-stakes disputes, defending employers in wage and hour claims, and providing strategic counsel on compliance and risk management.

“We are thrilled to welcome Javier to the firm,” said Larry Wulkan, Co-Managing Partner of Zwillinger Wulkan LLP. “His exceptional litigation skills, deep experience in both private practice and government service, and commitment to justice make him a tremendous asset to our clients and our team.”

Javier earned his Juris Doctor from UCLA School of Law, where he served as Managing Editor of the UCLA Law Review, and his A.B. in Political Science from Stanford University. He is deeply engaged in the legal and civic community, serving on the Maricopa County Commission on Trial Court Appointments, the Board of Directors for Girl Scouts of Arizona, and as an Executive Board Member of Los Abogados Arizona Hispanic Bar Association.

“I am excited to join Zwillinger Wulkan and return to private practice alongside an incredibly talented team,” said Torres. “The firm’s reputation for excellence in litigation and its deep commitment to civil rights and business advocacy align perfectly with my passion for the law. I look forward to serving our clients and contributing to the firm’s continued success.” Javier’s arrival strengthens Zwillinger Wulkan’s litigation and employment law capabilities, further positioning the firm as a leader in Arizona’s legal community.
